RUDY RUETTIGER is an Emmy Award-winning motivational keynote speaker, author, and producer with over 25 years of experience speaking to corporations, universities, sports teams, and special events. His life story inspired the major motion picture, RUDY.

Millions have been inspired by the movie, now let the man behind the movie inspire YOU! Rudy delivers a message of hope and offers inspiration and motivation to create momentum and to build a cohesive team that works together towards a common mission to produce successful results. Rudy's life story and experience is full of valuable information that teaches audiences how to build valuable relationships within an organization to overcome challenges, find their strengths, learn from their setbacks, and create positive forward momentum.

Rudy's presentation is choreographed to a video production that brings the audience to their feet every time! Rudy tells his story of overcoming the odds along with the insights he learned along the way. He will focus his message on the needs of your group and offer a message that helps to fulfill the mission of your team. He is also available for a Q&A and meet & greet following his presentation, plus memorabilia & autograph sessions, photo opportunities, and special guest appearances.
